MOVING TO METRO VANCOUVER

The diverse region of Metro Vancouver, which encompasses a number of unique cities and communities, with no shortage of restaurants, shopping, schools and universities, recreational activities and other local attractions, not to mention easy access to BC's looming mountains, coastal parks, lakes, wildlife sanctuaries and almost 30 wineries and a growing number of local breweries. The region's population is wonderfully diverse, creating a vibrant cultural mosaic in which distinct cuisine, architecture, language and arts thrive.

Vancouver is consistently highly ranked as one of the most livable cities in the world by The Economist.

The climate of Metro Vancouver is by far the mildest winter climate of the major Canadian cities. Summers are warm and a great time to go for a hike or bike ride through some of the natural beauty of the surrounding areas, or head to any number of local beaches or lakes for a barbeque or camping, or just to sit on a garden patio and enjoy some local cuisine in the sunshine. Winters are temperate but close by are mountains for world-class skiing, snowboarding or snowshoeing.

If you dream of finding that perfect blend of stunning natural beauty, along with the hustle and bustle of city life, you really can have it all in Metro Vancouver.
